OUR SCHOOL COMMUNITY

The Peabody-Burns school district is located in the rural area of central Kansas at the edge of the Flint Hills and includes the towns of Burns and Peabody. The district covers 235 square miles in Marion, Butler, Chase, and Harvey Counties. Burns and Peabody sit in close relationship to several larger cities that include Newton and Wichita, both of which provide excellent shopping and cultural opportunities. The school district is within a short driving distance of several post-secondary & graduate colleges, universities, and vocational programs.

The Peabody-Burns facilities are spacious and well maintained. The MS/HS was completed in 1996, incorporating two gymnasiums, individual fine arts room, well equipped weight room, and greenhouse. The elementary school, while built in 1976, has been renovated and adapted to meet today's educational needs. The facilities are well maintained and are the pride of the community.
