OUR SCHOOL COMMUNITY

Jefferson County North, Unified School District #339, is located in the northeast corner of Jefferson County. The district encompasses 114 square miles. Much of this land is in Jefferson County, with very small sections extending into Atchison and Leavenworth counties. This area includes the two towns of Nortonville and Winchester.

The district has impressive, well-maintained, technology rich attendance centers including an elementary middle school (Preschool-8th grade) facility built in 1997, located in Nortonville, and a recently renovated high school (9-12th grade) facility built in 1980, located in Winchester. The other main building in the district serves as the district office and high school technology center, also located in Winchester.

Jefferson County North is a great place to work and live where children come first, and exciting things happen.
