DISTRICT HIGHLIGHTS

From the beautiful Wilson Reservoir on the north, through the rolling Smoky Hills and into the rich farmland of the south, the Central Plains School District covers 583 square miles which includes parts of five counties: Lincoln, Ellsworth, Russell, Rice, and Barton and has attendance centers in the communities of Claflin, Holyrood and Wilson. Students compete in the Central Prairie League at the Central Plains Jr/Sr High School and Wilson Schools belong to the Northern Plains League.

We are a family of communities providing an education for our children that will equip them to achieve their dreams in the 21st Century! USD 112 schools are among the best in the state. We have achieved the following:

- Adequate Yearly Progress on the NCLB mandates
- Recipient of the Governor’s Achievement Award and Kansas’ “Standard of Excellence” recognition in the elementary, middle, and high schools
- Students are consistently ranked at the top in academics, music, FFA and athletic competitions
- Small class sizes
- 1:1 lap top computer initiative at the high schools
- iPads at the elementary and middle schools
- Focus on technology
- Teachers that deeply care and help students to prepare for life after graduation
- Special Education served by Central Kansas Coop in Education
- Member of ESSDACK and Smoky Hill Service Centers
- Lakeside Learning Center is a virtual learning environment that allows non-traditional students a way to earn their high school diploma and high school students an opportunity of credit recovery
