USD 267 VISION AND MISSION STATEMENT

“Cultivating Excellence in all Students”

Renwick USD 267 will provide opportunities that develop all students into contributing members of society.

WE BELIEVE:

- All students can learn and must have access to academic opportunities to succeed
- Education is a shared responsibility between students, parents, community members and district personnel
- Relationships must be built between staff, parents, community partnerships and students.
- All students learn differently, and we must differentiate
- All staff must work towards a common goal and collaborate
- The district must provide a safe learning environment to educate our students academically, physically, and socially
